8th BfR-Forum on Consumer Protection “When substances affect the endocrine system – Possible health risks of endocrine disruptors”

Dear colleagues,

We would like to inform you that the Federal Institute for Risk Assessment as EFSA Focal Point in Germany will organise the 8th BfR-Forum on Consumer Protection. Issue of this Forum will be “When substances affect the endocrine system – Possible health risks of endocrine disruptors”. The Forum is conducted in cooperation with AFSSA. A speaker of the Department of Plant Protection Products of EFSA will give a presentation on EFSA activities regarding the risk assessment of endocrine disruptors with emphasis on pesticides.

The Forum will take place from 19th to 20th April 2010 in Berlin.

Further details you may find under this link:
